

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.—Ran away on Sunday evening, the 19th of April, from the subscriber, near Sweetser's bridge, Anne Arundel county, Md., a well made dark YELLOW MAN, named HENRY TUNKS, or CROWNER, about 25 years of age, 5 feet nine or ten inches high, very small whiskers irregularly set—think a small scar on his forehead—a pleasant countenance, with tolerable large white eyes; not insolent at any time; weight between 150 and 160 lbs.; wide cheek bones and narrow chin. Henry was formerly the property of Richard Linthicum, and is well acquainted in Baltimore—has a brother in Baltimore, and a white wife above the Avalon, in Crowden Town, near the Sulphur Springs, above Elk Ridge Landing. I will give $50 in or out of the State if secured in Baltimore jail, or returned to me. WM. LINTHICUM, near Sweetser's bridge, A. A. county.
